

November 2017 Coffee Hour

Join us for a conversation with

Ann LoGerfo, Attorney
Columbia Legal Services

Thursday, November 16, 2017 The Central Building
10:00-11:00 a.m. 1st Floor Conference Room
810 3rd Avenue

(Between Columbia & Marion Streets in downtown Seattle)

Ann is a Directing Attorney with the Basic Human Needs Project. She advocates for clients on access to the fundamentals of human need: housing, food, medical services and financial justice, and is the primary attorney focusing on issues specific to the older adult population of King County and Washington State.

For questions about accessibility or to request an accommodation, contact Rowena Rye (206-684-0500 or seniors@seattle.gov). Requests should be made as soon as possible (at least three days prior to the event).

Coffee Hours are held on the third Thursday of every month at the Central Building and on other dates in Seattle neighborhoods.

The events bring community elders closer to City officials to explore topics of interest. Presentations often include cutting edge information about healthy aging, legal and planning issues, and more.

Participants learn about City programs and services, and officials hear from their constituents.

Coffee and refreshments are served.
